

NESDEC Innovation and Leadership in ESD

Program / Project Assessment Rubric

GENERAL
----------------

Program / Project Goals

- goals clearly stated / defined
- Project / program addresses at least two inclusion criteria
  - o Sectors: Formal, non-formal, informal
  - o ESD areas
  - o Leadership / Innovation

Partnerships

- identified types/categories of partners (rather than specific names of individuals)
- identified what each partner brought to the program / project

Transferability / Scalability

- Provided specific suggestions for transferring this program / project to other locations
- Identified challenges in transferring this program / project

INNOVATION
-------------------

- Program / project is considered unique
  - o Identify level – local, regional, national, international
- Approach(es) to overcoming challenges in implementing program / project are unique
- Identified and worked with non-traditional partners

LEADERSHIP
-------------------

- Program / Project has already received recognition as a leader
  - o Identify level – local, regional, national, international
- Program / Project has been or will be used in leadership role
  - o Describe role (training others, sharing at conferences, etc.)
- Approach to overcoming challenges in implementing program / project required leadership involving other individuals / organizations
- Factor to attain success required elements of leadership